

Event Date: Saturday October 2, 2010 11am to 4pm
Location: Humble Civic Arena next to Humble Civic Center corner of Will Clayton and S. Houston Avenue

Booth Fee: $ 25

NO RAIN DATE - NO REFUND

Vendor agrees to provide any permits necessary for this event

Name of Vendor: _____

Description of Goods/Service: _____

Contact Person: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Inside Outside (check one)

Vendor areas will be inside and outside. Outside will be approximately 1.5 parking spaces wide by at least 1 parking space deep. Inside will be 10' x 10'. Vendors will supply their own tables and covers, etc.

Electricity may be available in the vendor area. Restrooms are available in the Arena

$5.00 Entry Fee to Arena (Festival) area (includes all the chili you can eat)

*Soft drinks & Water will be sold, exclusively, by Knights of Columbus

Other drinks and food sales are permitted for vendors – but NO alcohol

The Festival reserves the right to restrict inappropriate sales

For additional information, contact Tony Austin at 281-812-4041 or Rose Baumann at 281-852-3171 or email tony@theaustinfamily.com.

Mail Application & Check (made out to Humble Noon Lions Club Foundation) to:
Tony Austin, Treasurer 20919 Greenfield Trail Kingwood, TX 77346

This is the 9th year for this annual Charity Event – please join us for some fun, & chili, & help us raise money for our many local projects.

For additional Event Information check us out at <http://www.humblenoonlc.com/Chilifest>